Scorekeeper Training Worksheets

Attached are 3 examples for determining the bye-out sheets for Dae Ryun competition. The Dae Ryun examples have more than one possible answer. Be sure to review all the key points to setting up the bye-out sheet to avoid problems once the matches begin.

Please take the time to explain how to calculate scores and helpful tips such as:

General

- Try our best to pronounce the competitor's name. Call the competitors up in a loud clear voice. Many competitors have the same first name so be sure to call them up by their full name and studio if necessary. You want to be sure the right competitor is up.
- Always announce who is up and who is on-deck.
- If you make a mistake, let the center judge know AS SOON AS POSSIBLE.

Dae Ryun

- Don't be afraid to ask one of the judges to help you when it is time to fill out the bracket sheets. Use their full name so the wrong competitors don't spar. Note which competitor is in which spot so you do not give the wrong competitor the point/penalty.
- In these examples, weight is given as the measurement for size but you must also consider height. For the first round, competitors should be paired by size if possible.
- Competitors from the same studios should not be paired in the first round.

Example 1 POSSIBLE ANSWER Dae Ryun Bye-out Sheets

Using the chart below, fill out the bye-out Dae Ryun score sheets with the information provided. Give a brief explanation on how you chose the bye-outs and the sparring pairs

participants	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17
bye-outs	1	0	3	2	1	0	7	6	5	4	3	2	1	0	15

Name	Age	Wt	Studio
Brian	16	123	Korean Martial Arts Institute I
Anthony	16	96	Dragons Liar Tang Soo Do
Adam	16	145	Korean Martial Arts Institute I
Alex	16	152	Tiger's Tang Soo Do
Matthew	16	130	Black Belt Academy
Mike	16	133	Vaughn's Dojang IV-Audubon
Robert	16	114	Family Circle Karate
David	16	100	Arteca's Martial Arts

Competitors = 8 so there are 0 bye-outs.

Every effort should be made so that competitors from the same studio do not spar each other for the first match. In this example, Brian and Adam are from the same studio. The second consideration when determining sparring partners is size. Anthony is 96 pounds while Alex is 152 pounds so you do not want to pair them for the first match. Not every division will work out perfect but you want the first matches to be as fair as possible.

On the bracket sheet, be sure to note which competitor is to the right and which is to the left. You want to make sure that the correct competitor gets the point/penalty. The winner advances on to the next round until 1st, 2nd and 3rd and co-3rd places are determined.

There is more than one possible answer for each example. One possible bye-out is on the next page.

Example 2 - POSSIBLE ANSWER Dae Ryun Bye-out Sheets

Using the chart below, fill out the bye-out Dae Ryun score sheets with the information provided. Give a brief explanation on how you chose the bye-outs and the sparring pairs

participants	3	4	5	6	7	8	9	10	11	12	13	14	15	16	17
bye -outs	1	0	3	2	1	0	7	6	5	4	3	2	1	0	15

Name	Age	Wt	Studio
Joe	21	123	Korean Martial Arts Institute I
Rick	22	196	Robinsons Martial Arts
Kevin	19	145	Korean Martial Arts Institute I
Alex	21	152	Robinsons Martial Arts
Will	23	130	Black Belt Academy
Mike	18	133	Vaughn's Dojangs
Robert	17	114	Family Circle Karate
George	23	133	Star Karate
Gary	18	143	Tiger's Claw Martial Arts

Competitors = 9 so there are 7 bye-outs. The bye-outs are chosen at random.

For this example, George and Will did not receive bye-outs so they must compete in the first round. Their names are placed in a bracket against each other. There are now 7 competitors who are automatically in the second round since they received a bye-out.

Every effort should be made so that competitors from the same studio do not spar each other for the first match. In this example, Joe and Kevin are from the same studio and Rick and Alex are also from the same studio. The second consideration when determining sparring partners is size. Rick is 196 pounds while Robert is only 114 pounds so you do not want to pair them for the first match. Not every division will work out perfect but you want the first matches to be as fair as possible.

In this example, the first round match is placed at the bottom of the bracket sheet. This gives the winner a chance to rest before the second round. The winner advances on to the next round until 1st, 2nd and 3rd and co-3rd places are determined.

There is more than one possible answer for each example. One possible bye-out is on the next page.

Example 3 POSSIBLE ANSWER

Dae Ryun Bye-out Sheets

Using the chart below, fill out the bye-out Dae Ryun score sheets with the information provided. Give a brief explanation on how you chose the bye-outs and the sparring pairs

participants	18	19	20	21	22	23	24	25	26	27	28	29	30	31	32
bye -outs	14	13	12	11	10	9	8	7	6	5	4	3	2	1	0

Name	Age	Wt	Studio
Karen	13	85	Castelli Shin's Karate
Katherine	13	124	Korean Martial Arts Institute IV
Rebecca	13	95	Valentin Karate
Allison	13	152	Godwin's Shin Karate Institute
Katie	13	114	Vaughn's Dojang IV-Audubon
Lindsay	13	103	Fighters Karate

Cindy	13	87	Star Karate
Kelsey	13	100	Korean Martial Arts Institute III
Jennifer	13	88	Vaughn's Dojang I-Phoenixville
Nina	13	75	Korean Martial Arts Institute I
Susan	13	72	Dragons Liar Tang Soo Do
Angelica	13	135	Korean Martial Arts Institute I
Britney	13	95	Fighters Karate

Competitors = 18 so there are 14 bye-outs. The bye-outs are chosen at random.

For this example, you will need to use TWO bracket sheets since there are more than 16 competitors in this division. Extreme care must be taken not to 'lose' anyone on the other pages. There are many competitors who are from the same studio as well as a large range of sizes (from 72 lbs. to 152 lbs.). Select sparring partners who are about the same size but for different studios for their first match. There are also several competitors from Korean Martial Arts Institute but they have different numbers (I, III and IV) and are considered different studios. Not every division will work out perfect but you want the first matches to be as fair as possible.

The winner advances on to the next round until 1st, 2nd and 3rd and co-3rd places are determined. There is more than one possible answer for each example. One possible bye-out is on the next two pages.
